

A woman with dark hair, wearing a black t-shirt, is on a film set. She is holding a walkie-talkie to her mouth and looking off-camera. In the background, there is a camera on a tripod and a white cabinet with various items on it.

FISCAL SPONSORSHIP GRANT PROGRAM

A way to support emerging storytellers in the arts.

What is a Fiscal Sponsor?

Fiscal sponsorship is an arrangement between an existing 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and an individual or entity lacking the ability to receive grants from foundations, government agencies and individual tax-deductible donations.

The main benefit of a fiscal sponsorship is giving emerging storytellers, filmmakers and entertainment artists access to charitable funding for their project without the expense and time-consuming process of creating and running a 501(c)(3) organization.

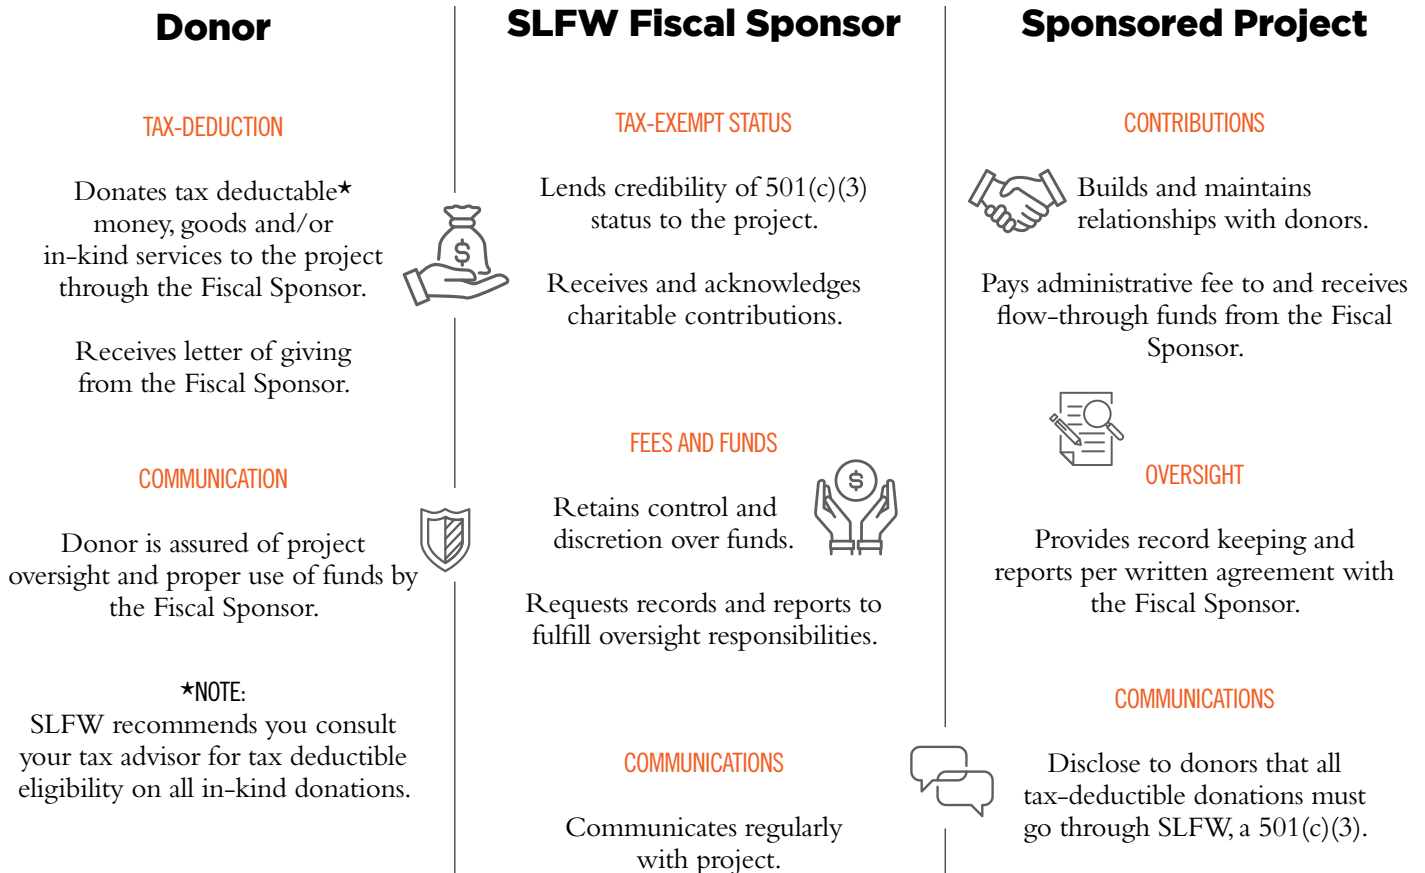

For the recipient, fiscal sponsors can provide infrastructure, oversight, and home for donations to an artist's project. The fiscal sponsor also agrees to assume limited legal and financial responsibility for the activities of groups or individuals engaged in work that furthers the fiscal sponsor's mission. For SLFW, this allows us to support creative independence in visual storytelling and uphold a community of diverse, innovative artists with unique vision.

For SLFW, this allows us to support creative independence in visual storytelling and uphold a community of diverse, innovative artists with unique vision.

SLFW offers the region's only fiscal sponsorship program geared toward emerging storytellers.

SLFW Fiscal Sponsorship Program

WHO DOES WHAT:

PROCESS OVERVIEW:

Submit Application > Review > Approval > Agreement > Receive & Track Donations

Because Stories Have Impact

stlouisfilmworks.org